

I believe that Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is outrageous.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get spoon fed a politically charged piece days before the election. They are using public airways -- MY airways -- for political purposes.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
